

ICAO Insider Risk Workshop

Workshop Aim

This workshop is designed to equip participants with knowledge, skills and attitude required to assist in the identification and development of Insider Threat Scenarios and the implementation of aviation security preventive measures in accordance with appropriate aviation security programmes, and prescribed international aviation security standards and recommended practices

Who should attend

- i. Civil Aviation Authority (CAA) and Aviation Operators personnel, including aviation security managers, inspectors, auditors, and regulatory oversight staff
- ii. Government security and law enforcement personnel.
- iii. Security, risk, and compliance professionals.
- iv. Members of aviation security committees and programme development teams responsible for threat assessment, security planning, and the implementation of aviation security programmes in accordance with national and international requirements.

Entry Requirements

- Currently employed in a role related to aviation security, airport operations, airline operations, or a government agency with aviation security responsibilities OR
- Involvement in or designated to participate in aviation security functions such as risk assessment, threat management, compliance, or implementation of security measures.
- Ability to communicate effectively in English

Workshop Content

- Understand and apply general principles of risk management
- Define and understand risk assessment as it applies to insider-based risks in aviation security
- Understand relevant Annex 17 standards
- Apply risk management principles to insider-based vulnerabilities in aviation security operations.

Workshop Duration

- 5 Working Days

Workshop fee

- Tanzanian: TZS 800,000
- Non-Tanzanian: USD 800